

Figure 3. Above example shows different noise settings for spots inner hole. Where (a) uses global background parameter to fill the center hole, (b) uses local background for filling the center hole. The background noise is set to sloped type with SNR of 1.5